

KAWARTHA PINE RIDGE DISTRICT SCHOOL BOARD

POLICY STATEMENT

Section: Human Resources

The Kawartha Pine Ridge District School Board recognizes that a high standard is expected of a public body where the employment, contractual, and purchasing requirements may vary widely and are spread throughout many departments and schools. It is essential that staff maintain the highest standard of public trust and integrity. Respect and dignity of individuals in the Board is paramount. Consequently, policy and administrative regulations governing ethics are established demonstrating that all reasonable measures will be taken in the interests of employment opportunities, contracts, and purchases of goods and services in a competitive and equitable manner avoiding any suspicion of irregularity but with enough flexibility to permit sound educational and business practices. This policy is in conjunction with the principles set out in Board Policy No. B5.1, Purchasing Procedures, and Board Policy No. 45A, Expenses and Reimbursements for Employees/Trustees.

Employees will, at all times, act in the best interests of the Board and the discharge of their duties, will not abuse their authority or office by using their positions or the resources of the Board for personal or private gain, or to promote political or religious interests.

1. Ethical Principles for Employees -General

- 1.1 Employees of the Board shall not use their authority or office for personal gain and shall seek to uphold Board policy. Employees are expected to maintain an unimpeachable standard of integrity; foster the highest standards of professional competence; optimize the use of resources; comply with national and provincial laws and regulations, and Board policies; reject and denounce any business practice that is improper; respect confidentiality and accuracy of information; avoid any arrangements that would prevent the effective operation of fair competition; refrain from using influence to obtain personal preferential treatment from Board suppliers; refrain from making personal purchases; and refrain from accepting business gifts other than items of minimal value.
- 1.2 Discrimination, on any prohibited grounds identified under the Human Rights Code will not be tolerated in human resources administration nor in the day-day operations of the Board. Furthermore, open and honest dealings are anticipated and professionalism is expected, of all Board employees as they execute their duties and responsibilities professionally, efficiently and impartially.
- 1.3 In the course of their duties employees will cooperate with other public agencies to initiate new, and enhance existing, partnerships to the advantage of the Board and in order to obtain the best possible value for every grant dollar.
